A stroll from Monterey's bustling Cannery Row lies a 24-room Victorian villa, built in the 1890s as a lavish private residence. Today it's a meticulously renovated resort steps from the water's edge. Every fixture and furnishing is an authentic Victorian era antique. Many rooms have fireplaces, claw-foot tubs and ocean views. Evening wine and appetizers plus a chef-prepared breakfast are included in the room rate.	Situated in quiet, secluded forest settings, these cottages are perfect romantic getaways. Furnishings are simple, yet elegant: antiques mixed throughout, oriental rugs and original art. There are kitchens, decks, lush gardens and hot tub. A full all-organic breakfast is offered. These cottages make a splendid home base for exploring the adjacent Pt. Reyes Nat'l Seashore beaches, trails, wildflowers, world-class birding, whale migrations and seal sites. 1 hour from San Francisco and Sonoma.	Experience romance on the spectacular Sonoma Coast where the Russian River meets the Pacific. Enjoy local, world-class wines, redwood forests, kayaking, playful seals and hundreds of bird species. 23 cozy rooms, suites, cottages and vacation houses, many with fireplaces and hot tubs. California Cuisine, Wine Bar and complimentary breakfast. The perfect destination for exclusive events, weddings and retreats.
