SANTA CRUZ

With sun, surf, and miles of golden sand, Santa Cruz is the quintessential California beach town. The Santa Cruz Wharf is known for fishing, viewing marine mammals and other recreation. The Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk is California's oldest amusement park and a designated State Historic Landmark. Take a thrill ride on the Beach Boardwalk's 1924 wooden roller coaster. Other popular outdoor activities include hiking, cycling and rock climbing. Ride through the redwoods aboard Roaring Camp Railroad's historic steam train. Hike the Skyline-to-the-Sea trail at Big Basin State Park. Take a relaxing walk along the beach at Natural Bridges State Park. Stroll the charming seaside hamlet of Capitola. Explore the vibrant arts scene and inspired cafés in downtown Santa Cruz.

MONTEREY PENINSULA

Wander along the historic Cannery Row made famous by novelist John Steinbeck. Once the locale for many sardine canning factories, today Cannery Row is a popular tourist attraction featuring restaurants, lodging and specialty shops. Another great area attraction for fine dining and souvenirs is the Monterey Fisherman's Wharf. Some of the country's best seafood and clam chowder is sold at the restaurants along the wharf. The peninsula is also home to quaint towns like Moss Landing, located right on the bay. Or try hiking at the Pinnacles National Monument just south down the Salinas Valley in Soledad, CA.

PACIFIC GROVE

The small town of Pacific Grove lies along the Monterey Bay and is best known for its wintering Monarch butterflies. Take a trip down the famous 17-Mile Drive and enjoy the views of the Monterey Bay. Or explore the Del Monte Forest. Enjoy the small-town charm as you explore the shops and restaurants of this Central Coast town. With dozens of world-famous golf courses in the area, why not test your swing at the holes of historic Pacific Grove Golf Links or nearby Pebble Beach.

CARMEL

The quaint village of Carmel-by-the-Sea offers a wide variety of restaurants, coffee houses and bakeries.

Carmel by the Sea is a mecca for artists, writers and musicians. More than 100 art studios, galleries and antique stores display the works of artists from around the world. Take time to browse the boutique shops and antique stores. The Carmel coastline has some of the most beautiful views in all of California. Just a short drive from Carmel, visitors can spend an afternoon exploring the area's coastline at Point Lobos State Reserve or take a drive along the breathtaking Big Sur coastline where more fantastic photo opportunities await you. Or sample the fine wines of the beautiful Carmel Valley.

PASO ROBLES

Located between Los Angeles and San Francisco in the coastal mountain range of central California, Paso Robles offers a unique and affordable escape from city life. With its close proximity to mountains, beaches and deserts, there's something for everyone in Paso Robles. Enjoy a relaxing day of wine tasting, fine dining and boutique shopping in downtown Paso Robles. Named for the local oak trees El Paso de Robles, or "pass of the trees," is one of California's fastest growing communities of boutique and family-owned vineyards and wineries. The growth of the wine industry has made downtown Paso Robles a quaint destination for wine tasting.

CAMBRIA

Cambria is located just west of the central valley, along California's coastline. Browse the art and antique shops in the town of Cambria. Just a short drive North of Cambria is the famous Hearst Castle also known as San Simeon, after the town it resides in. Built in 1919 by newspaper millionaire William Randolph Hearst, Hearst Castle featured 56 bedrooms, 61 bathrooms, swimming pools, a movie theater, an airfield, and the world's largest private zoo. Designated a State Historical Monument and a National Historic Landmark, this indulgent castle is open to the public for tours.

SAN LUIS OBISPO

On California's legendary Highway 1, halfway between Los Angeles and San Francisco, San Luis Obispo, or "SLO" as it's affectionately called by the locals, is a destination known for its lovely coastal towns and leisurely pace. Wander the shops and restaurants tucked into historic downtown San Luis Obispo. Enjoy a day at the beach in Cayucos or have some fresh seafood in Morro Bay. Make the short drive to Cambria and explore Hearst Castle, or drive North and enjoy wine tasting in Paso Robles.

Martine Inn

25 Rooms | $169 - $399 per night

Just steps from the waters of Monterey Bay, a couple of blocks from Cannery Row, lies a 25 room villa that Bon Appetit considers "one of the best B&Bs in historic homes" & Conde Nast Traveler calls "spectacular place for a romantic getaway." The Martine Inn built in 1890 as a lavish private residence. Now it's a meticulously renovated resort where every fixture and furnishing is an authentic Victorian-era antique and each room has it's own decor. Morning brings breakfast on silver, crystal & lace. Evening presents wine & hors d'oeuvres, antipasto & fruit. Many of the rooms have fireplaces, claw foot tub, or views of the waves crashing against the rocky coastline of Pacific Grove. Wi-fi is available throughout and a computer with highspeed connection is available in the library. Bathrobes, fresh roses, phone, clock radio, hair dryer and refrigerator adorn each room. All this immediately adjacent to 17 miles of coastal hiking and biking trails and only 3 blocks to the spectacular Monterey Bay Aquarium.
