

FOR RELEASE AT WILL

Fall/Winter 2003

Contact: Erin Bernall, media relations
(831) 479-9290, erin@bernall.com

CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION OF BED AND BREAKFAST INNS LAUNCHES
WWW.CABBI.COM FOR CALIFORNIA B&B TRAVEL

Soquel, CA – Choosing the perfect bed and breakfast getaway in California is easy at www.cabbi.com, a comprehensive website sponsored by the California Association of Bed and Breakfast Inns (CABBI). The website features over 340 distinctive bed and breakfast inns throughout California, and is the most thorough, single source of information for bed and breakfast travel in the state. Travelers can research accommodations by region, amenities, or facilities. Links to member inns make it easy to determine rates and availability at a chosen destination. CABBI bed and breakfast inns are ideal for business travel, family vacations, group functions, and romantic getaways.

In addition to providing vacation planners with a one-stop-shop California lodging website, www.cabbi.com also features information on lodging packages, value-season rates, and regional promotions. Site visitors can sign up at www.cabbi.com to receive the monthly Inn Crowd e-newsletter that features up-to-date information on CABBI properties and travel within California. For those who want to give the gift of travel for any occasion, CABBI gift certificates can be purchased online at www.cabbi.com.

CABBI represents over 340 individually owned B&Bs and inns in five California regions: Northern California, Gold Country/High Sierra, San Francisco Bay Area, Central Coast/Valley, and Southern California. All CABBI-certified properties adhere to the highest quality standards, ensuring that all guests experience the utmost in customer service, amenities, and convenience of choice. CABBI is a non-profit organization. For more information on CABBI, please visit www.cabbi.com, or call (831) 462-9191.